

The Book Adoption Party offers Friends of the Library and guests the opportunity to underwrite the cost of acquiring and conserving selected rare books, manuscripts, maps, photographs, and coins in the Princeton University Library's special collections. Attendees will have the opportunity to meet the Library's curators and conservators and learn from them about the items available for adoption. The cost of these items will range from $15 to $3,000. Your reservation or contribution will entitle you to receive an advance copy of the event catalogue, or you may view it online at <http://www.fpul.org/bae>. Last-minute questions or cancellation: (609) 258-3155 or loliveir@princeton.edu.

Detail from the engraved panorama in Raffaello Politi (1783-1870), Esposizione di un vaso fittile agrigentino nella famosa collezione di S.M. Ludovico re di Baviera (Palermo: Eredi di Graffeo, 1828). Marquand Library of Art and Archaeology, Princeton University. In this volume, which is available for adoption, Politi argues that the design on Ludwig I's vase depicts a battle of the gods and giants.
