

The Book Adoption Party offers Friends of the Library and guests the opportunity to underwrite the cost of acquiring and conserving selected rare books, manuscripts, maps, photographs, and coins in the Princeton University Library's special collections. Attendees will have the opportunity to meet the Library's curators and conservators and learn from them about the items available for adoption. The cost of these items will range from $100 to $1,500. Your reservation will entitle you to receive an advance copy of the event catalogue, or you may view it online at <http://www.fpul.org/bae>. Last-minute questions or cancellation: (609) 258-3155 or loliveir@princeton.edu.

On the front: "Odontoglossum Rossii Majus. Woodland variety." In Frederick Boyle, The Woodlands Orchids Described and Illustrated, with Stories of Orchid-Collecting, colored plates by J. L. Macfarlane (London and New York: Macmillan, 1901). This volume is item 6 in the book adoption catalogue.
